Public relations/publicity – There was some discussion about this committee and Chris Neely spoke up to say that this is a good 20 hour job and that this needs to be explained to whomever is assigned this task.

Ways and means –Susan Martine reminded that donations for the yard sale need to be made on the 12th and she also needs volunteers to set up and work the sale Saturday June 18.

Pro-Am –Vickie Pressey reported $9,400.00 in sale of ads and still has money due in from golfers .

Flyer –Susan Martine said they are still checking for venues and directors. A letter and form will be on the web. They still need people to sign up for chairs and co-chairs.

Old business - none.

New business- Georgia Porter reported that Doug Pricer is going to do a meet and greet at at The Chop House starting Sunday for the Deana Martin show, and continuing for each show of the season. The Midland is giving him four tickets for each show that allows for front seats , and sometimes, back stage passes . He offered the tickets to sell in raffle for $5.00 each and we keep the profits if we supply 2 people to sell tickets. A motion was made that we participate in this fund-raiser. It was seconded and passed.

Julie Kunsman volunteered herself and husband to work the first raffle. Ways and means will be in charge of sign-ups for volunteers for the remaining shows.

There will not be a July meeting. August meeting will the picnic. The next regular meeting will be September 12.

Meeting adjourned.
