

20th Century Club Newsletter

November 2006

Prospective Members

Seven women have been nominated for club membership! They are: Debra Pegher, Brooke Riggleman, Melinda Seeds, Nancy McAleer, Sarah Lott, Susan Byrd and Lori Stewart .

The vote for new members will take place at the December meeting.

2007 Pro-Am

Amy Petryk is already hard at work planning the Pro-Am, scheduled for May 11, 2007. There will be meetings at Amy's home at 10am on Nov. 27, and again on Dec. 4. An additional meeting is scheduled for Jan. 12. Please contact Amy if you will be attending.

Annual Dinner

The Manna Restaurant will be the site of the annual dinner! Mark the date....Tuesday, January 9, 2007. Three entrée choices will be available. The Social Committee will be contacting all members. Rides to the restaurant will be offered to those interested.

Cookbooks!

Cookbooks are selling well at local craft shows. Any member who can organize other venues for selling should contact Susan Kamps for a supply of cookbooks.

Camp O'Bannon

Wanda Gainer announced income of $7,000 for the annual Murder Mystery at Camp!

Contact Information

Please contact Paula McWilliams with changes in personal information. Many e-mail addresses have changed recently. Please let Paula know if you have not been receiving Club e-mail updates.

GFS Discounts Available

The Club now has a discount card for Gordon Food Service in Heath. Just mention the 20th Century Club if you need to make Club purchases.

Rules Changes Proposed

The Rules and Regulations Committee have proposed modifications of the 20th Century Club Constitution and By-Laws. Sally Howarth presented these changes at the November meeting. Please refer to the attached note which indicates updates for specific sections and pages.

A vote for all proposed changes will be conducted at the Club meeting in December.

Reminders

The next Club meeting will be held in our regular first floor room at LMH, 7:30pm on Monday, Dec. 4, 2006.

The Monies Committee will meet at 6:45pm, prior to the December meeting.

Donna's Quote

"The greater the obstacle, the more glory in overcoming it."